RIDER'S ALMANACK:

For the Year of Our LORD GOD
M.DCC.LXXXV.

BISSEXTILE or LEAP YEAR,

And the Twenty-fifth of the Reign of

HIS PRESENT MAJESTY

GEORGE THE THIRD

Adorned with many delightful and useful

V E R I T I E S .

WITH

NOTES OF HUSBANDRY,

FAIRS, MARTS, HIGH ROADS,

And TABLES for many necessary USES.

L O N D O N :

Printed for T. CARNAN, in St. Paul's Church Yard, who, after an expensive Suit in Law and Equity, by the Unanimous Opinion of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas, dispossessed the Stationer's Company of their pretended exclusive Privilege of Printing Almanacks, which they had usurped for Two Centuries:
A convincing Proof that no unjust Monopoly will ever stand the Test of an English Court of Justice.

Price Nine-Pence, stitched.

ECLIPSES for the Year 1785.

THE Luminarian Eclipses which happen this Year are only two, they both of the Sun, and both of them invisible to the Inhabitants of this Island.

The first is on Ash-Wednesday, the Ninth of February, at 25 min. past 12 at noon. It will be a very great Eclipse in the Southern Parts of Africa and the Ethiopian Ocean; for under 14 Degrees of South Latitude, and near 7 Degrees of West Longitude from London, viz. about 23 Leagues North-West of the Island of St. Helena, the Sun will be totally eclipsed precisely at Noon-day.

The second Eclipse is on Friday the 5th of August, at 31 min. after 1 in the Morning. This will be a very great Eclipse in the great Pacific Ocean, but it will not be total but annular. It will be visible at O-wy-ee, Oia-beite, and other Islands discovered by the late celebrated Navigator Capt. Cook, in the above-named Pacific Ocean.

VENUS is an Evening Star from the Beginning of the Year to the 30th of May, and from thence a Morning Star to the Year's End.

JUPITER is an Evening Star to the 10th of March, from thence a Morning Star to the 2d of October; and after that an Evening Star to the End of the Year.

UNCOMMON NOTES.

Mercurii 28, Die Aprilis 1779.

Lord North brought a Bill into the House of Commons, to vest the sole Right of Printing Almanacks in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, and the Company of Stationers of London, which usurped Power, under Letters Patent, they had been dispossessed of May 29, 1775, by the unanimous Opinion of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas, after enjoying it, to the Disgrace of Literature, and Oppression of the Almanack * Venders, for two Centuries: but only Forty Members appeared to support the second Reading of a Bill, to make legal what the Judges had declared to be illegal; when it was rejected by a great Majority, to the Increase of His Majesty's Revenue, and the great Honour of the Right Hon. Frederick Lord North, at that Time First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, &c. &c. &c. &c.

* Some of these have been so grateful, as to forget to whom they are indebted for the double Profit which they have for some Years enjoyed from the Sale of Almanacks; and are insensible of the dirty Expedients practised by the Worshipful Company to regain the Monopoly, when, no doubt, the Profits to the Retailers would be the same as formerly, which were scarce sufficient to defray the Expence of Carriage.

IN THE SESSIONS OF 1781,

AN additional Tax was imposed on Sheet Almanacks, in order to present the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge with £500 a Year each, in lieu of the above unjust Monopoly, which had not, on an Average, produced them £100 a Year. What a glorious Appropriation of a Tax in the Time of Rebellion and War!

The Worshipful Company of Stationers gave their utmost Assistance for the additional Duty, by which a Tax of Two-pence more was laid on each Sheet Almanack; and T. CARNAN presented a Memorial to both Houses of Parliament against the additional Duty, which was very ably and constitutionally opposed in the House of Commons by GEORGE BYNG, Esq; SIR CHARLES TURNER, &c. and in the House of Lords by the Right Honourable EDWARD Lord THURLOW, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain.

MARCH 25, 1784,

Parliament dissolved for attempting to invade the chartered Rights of the East-India Company, altho' their Charter had been renewed to them by the same Parliament for 21 Years, in the Session of 1781, when Lord North was the Minister.
